The president of Cuba, Miguel Díaz-Canel, asserted today the United States is the greatest violator of human rights in the world.

'The genocidal and illegal blockade of Cuba is an expression of this,' said the president on his Twitter account, which he accompanied with the hashtags NoMásBloqueo, SomosCuba and SomosContinuidad.

Díaz-Canel shared an article in the Granma newspaper in which the Venezuelan ambassador to the Human Rights Council of the United Nations (UN), Jorge Valero, condemns the actions of the White House when withdrawing from the World Organization of Health and arms control treaties.

The diplomat spoke in the cycle of conferences on global governance and development, and The challenges and common problems of humanity today.
