

Cuba expresses condolences for victims in US of forest fires

Cuban Foreign Minister Bruno Rodríguez Parrilla today expressed condolences for the human and material losses in the United States due to forest fires.

We observe with heartfelt concern the damage that fires are causing in large areas of territory in the states of California, Oregon and Washington, the Minister of Foreign Affairs also subscribed.

More than 30 people lost their lives in the flames that affected western United States.

Source:

Prensa Latina
Monday, September 14, 2020